

Board Members Desirable Qualities

Influence

The ability to exert a positive influence on a specific sector of the Northern Virginia/National Capital community. The ability to generate and/or direct resources to support the activities and programs of Pathway Homes.

Authority

Decision-making authority at an independent or management level.

Empathy

Appreciate the challenges facing people with mental illness as well as recognize their dignity, worth and need for support as they strive to reach their highest individual potential.

Philanthropic Commitment

Support of not-for-profit organizations and charitable agencies, and specifically a willingness to commit time and resources to Pathway Homes, Inc.